Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central New York Welcomes New Team Member

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central New York has hired Faye Janes, of Syracuse, New York, as a donor database specialist.

Janes is responsible for helping build and maintain donor relationships, and managing the organization's donor database, including gift processing, gift acknowledgement, record keeping, and data entry and reporting. She will provide additional support on guest services, events and administrative duties.

Prior to joining Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central New York, Janes gained experience in development and donor relations at Ronald McDonald House Charities of Jacksonville and the Association of Fundraising Professionals of Central New York. She has a bachelor's degree in public communication from the State University of New York at Buffalo.

About Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Central New York: Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central New York operates the CNY Ronald McDonald House 24 hours a day, year-round for families whose children are hospitalized with serious illnesses or injuries. For just $25 a night per family, the House provides the convenience of a comfortable room and warm bed, a home-cooked meal, and support and compassion. The fully accessible CNY Ronald McDonald House allows the organization to help keep even more families with seriously ill children together.
