Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central New York Welcomes New Team Members

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Central New York has hired Kathy Carr, of Auburn, New York, as business office administrator, and Shelly Schwitter, of Syracuse, New York, as guest services associate.

Carr is responsible for supporting the organization's day-to-day financial and accounting functions. Prior to joining Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central New York, Carr gained experience in financial services and business administration at various organizations in Upstate New York. Most recently, she was the accounting and human resources manager at KJDE Corp.

Schwitter is responsible for managing guest services, including guest check-ins and hospital referrals, general administrative and office reception duties, and providing support on House operations, programs and events. Schwitter transitioned into her new role after having served as an overnight relief staff member at the CNY Ronald McDonald House for over seven years.

About Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Central New York: Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central New York operates the CNY Ronald McDonald House 24 hours a day, year-round for families whose children are hospitalized with serious illnesses or injuries. For just $25 a night per family, the House provides the convenience of a comfortable room and warm bed, a home-cooked meal, and support and compassion. The fully accessible CNY Ronald McDonald House allows the organization to help keep even more families with seriously ill children together. For more information or to donate, visit rmhcny.org.
