

Ronald McDonald House Charities of CNY
Youth Advisory Board
2022-2023

The objective: The Youth Advisory Board includes, but is not limited to, participating, and creating projects that will educate the members on the value of philanthropy and volunteerism in the community. These students will plan and conduct fundraising events, community events, and volunteer activities that will raise awareness and funds for RMHC of CNY.

The goal: To instill values, leadership skills and passion in the future generation of leaders in the Central New York area. In turn, the members of RMHC of CNY board of directors will serve as positive role models for the youth with regard to actively participating, and making a difference, in their community.

Candidate Requirements:

- Entering freshman, sophomore, or junior year of high school in the Central New York or Northern Pennsylvania Area
- Attend Orientation
- Volunteer a minimum of 20 hours per year
- Attend 5 out of the 8 advisory board meetings
- Participate in external and internal fundraising &/or volunteer activities
- Raise visibility and awareness of RMHC of CNY at his/her school and community
