About Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central New York

Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central New York is dedicated to supporting the health and well-being of children and families. We provide programs and services that remove barriers, strengthen families, and promote healing when children receive medical care in the Syracuse area.

We're seeking a Family Support Specialist who will play a key role in developing and delivering programs that enhance the emotional well-being and resilience of the families we serve. This position focuses on building strong community partnerships, expanding access to support services, and using data to continuously improve program effectiveness.

What You'll Do:

- Design and lead family-centered support programs
- Coordinate access to counseling, peer support, and wellness services
- Build partnerships with community organizations and service providers
- Support families as they transition back to their home communities
- Develop workshops and group programming with clinicians and partners
- Expand and enhance psychosocial support services
- Track outcomes and evaluate program effectiveness
- Analyze data to identify needs and improve services
- Report program impact to leadership and stakeholders

What You Bring:

- Bachelor's degree (Master's preferred) in a relevant field
- At least 4 years of experience in family services, healthcare, nonprofit programming, or behavioral health
- Experience working with families in high-stress or healthcare environments preferred
- Strong knowledge of community resources and social services
- Experience building partnerships and managing programs
- Understanding of trauma-informed care and health equity principles
- Excellent communication, organization, and facilitation skills

Work Environment

- Active, on-site role requiring movement throughout the facility
- Ability to lift up to 25 pounds
- Occasional evenings and weekends required

Why Join Us?

You'll be part of a passionate team driven by compassion, equity and impact helping families stay close during challenging times in their lives. We offer a collaborative work environment, opportunities for professional growth and the chance to directly support families throughout Central New York.
